

Every Sunday
from 18th Feb, 4-6pm
Caffè Nero, Wokingham

Did God use evolution to create the world? How could Jesus be man and God? What is the Trinity?

Using ideas from the book "Café Theology" and some good coffee, we'll be asking why these questions matter, taking the discussion wherever it goes...

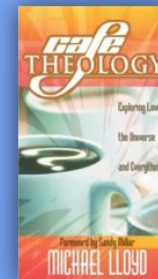

Every Sunday
from 18th Feb, 4-6pm
Caffè Nero, Wokingham

Did God use evolution to create the world? How could Jesus be man and God? What is the Trinity?

Using ideas from the book "Café Theology" and some good coffee, we'll be asking why these questions matter, taking the discussion wherever it goes...

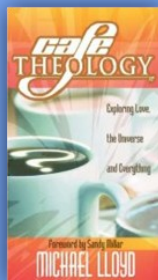

Every Sunday
from 18th Feb, 4-6pm
Caffè Nero, Wokingham

Did God use evolution to create the world? How could Jesus be man and God? What is the Trinity?

Using ideas from the book "Café Theology" and some good coffee, we'll be asking why these questions matter, taking the discussion wherever it goes...

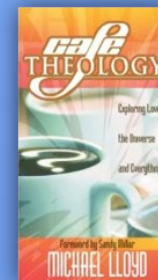

Every Sunday
from 18th Feb, 4-6pm
Caffè Nero, Wokingham

Did God use evolution to create the world? How could Jesus be man and God? What is the Trinity?

Using ideas from the book "Café Theology" and some good coffee, we'll be asking why these questions matter, taking the discussion wherever it goes...

Après church was an idea born from one too many lattes.

We are a group of friends looking to get to know God. We want to explore Christianity and to share that journey with anyone open and honest enough to join in.

We chart our progress on our blog at <http://apreschurch.com>

Après church was an idea born from one too many lattes.

We are a group of friends looking to get to know God. We want to explore Christianity and to share that journey with anyone open and honest enough to join in.

We chart our progress on our blog at <http://apreschurch.com>

Après church was an idea born from one too many lattes.

We are a group of friends looking to get to know God. We want to explore Christianity and to share that journey with anyone open and honest enough to join in.

We chart our progress on our blog at <http://apreschurch.com>

Après church was an idea born from one too many lattes.

We are a group of friends looking to get to know God. We want to explore Christianity and to share that journey with anyone open and honest enough to join in.

We chart our progress on our blog at <http://apreschurch.com>

